Aubrey Myers, founder of A.R. Myers Glass, has a passion for quality work, both in the architectural glass business and in auto body repair. In fact, he taught his children (and his employees) early on that there was no such word as "can't" in his business vocabulary.

That's still true today. In the 50 years since founding the company in Wilmington, Delaware, A.R. Myers has accumulated a staff of expert craftsmen second to none in the industry-with over 150 years of experience between them-and most have been with the company for decades. We guarantee it.
